FINDS CHUM HE THOUGHT KILLED IN CIVIL WAR

Rev. Hewitt Hears From Friend of College Days 50 Years Ago.

LIVES IN MISSISSIPPI

Memories of Half a Century Ago Awakened by Newspaper Clipping Received From Col. Austin Curtin, who is now at Vicksburg.

True friendship is a tie that binds more firmly than iron or steel, and one of the most interesting and gratifying moments in any man's life is to receive the intellegence that a friend is alive whom he has long thought dead. Instances of this kind are not numerous, and when one occurs it often brings with it fond recollections that are worthy of mention.

This was the recent experience of Rev. John Hewitt, the efficient and genial rector of the St. John's Episcopal church, Bellefonte. On Tuesday afternoon a representative of "The Republican," as he was sauntering around after news, dropped into Spigelmyer & Co's. store. Presently Mr. Hewitt came in to hear G. R. Spigelmyer tell some exciting instances that occurred in his early days as a merchant. While there Mr. Hewitt stated that he had just received an interesting letter from Col. Austin Curtin, who is in Vicksburg, Miss., escaping the cold, chilly blasts of the northern winter. In the letter was a picture of the Pennsylvania monument, erected in the National Cemetery there to the memory of the soldiers of the Keystone State who shed their life-blood on Southern soil in defense of the Union. Attached to this monument is a large bust of the late Gen. John I. Curtin, of Bellefonte. It stands as a testimonial to the worth and bravery of this distinguished soldier on the field of battle.

While the above is interesting to the local public, the letter also contained a column newspaper clipping which was especially interesting to Mr. Hewitt because it spoke of the political aspirations of a close friend whom he believed had been killed in battle during the Civil War. The story is full of romance and is about as follows:

During the years from 1857 to 1861 Mr. Hewitt was a student in college, near Williamsport, Md. Among his classmates were Jeff. Davis Laughlin and William Laughlin, nephews of Jefferson Davis, President of the Southern Confederacy. The three students became close friends, but especially was the friendship closely knit between Mr. Hewitt and Jefferson Davis Laughlin. Soon after the Civil War was declared the young men decided they would join the Southern Confederacy. They left school and started on a perilous journey for their homes to enlist. As the war had practically begun it was with great difficulty they succeeded in getting through the Northern lines, to Norfolk, Virginia. Here the friends separated, Mr. Hewitt going to Florida and the Laughlin brothers to Mississippi. They all enlisted in the war from their respective states. Mr. Hewitt never heard from Jefferson Davis Laughlin again and naturally supposed he had been killed and, with thousands of other soldiers, was filling an unknown grave.

To the great and pleasant surprise of Mr. Hewitt he found that the clipping in question was a biographical sketch of his friend who is now an aspirant for a high office in his native state. Thus after a lapse of half a century the newspaper clipping announced the fact that Jefferson Davis Laughlin was living and active, making it possible for the two friends to communicate with each other and revive old memories.

The strange part about this co-incidence is that Col. Curtin, a native of Centre County, Pennsylvania, should be the medium through which these friends should be brought together. Mr. Hewitt also stated that in 1867 he attended the first church convention at Vicksburg, and when he entered the pew of the church he sat down beside Joseph Davis, brother of "Jeff." Davis, who was a conspicuous figure during the war.

Junior Preliminary Contest.

On Friday afternoon March 31st, the Junior preliminary contest will take place in the auditorium of the Bellefonte High School. There will be fifteen contestants from which ten will be chosen to compete for the Reynolds gold medal prize on Monday evening of commencement week. The parents and the public, in general, are cordially invited to attend this contest which is always of an interesting character.

CO. L. OFFICERS MAY MAKE TRIP TO MEXICO

Captain Taylor and Lieutenants Taylor and Brown Volunteer.

CAMP WITH REGULARS

Trip Planned to Familiarize Pennsylvania National Guard Officers with Surroundings at Scene of Mexican Insurrection.

The Mexican trouble seems far-reaching. It is possible that some day they will call for recruits from old Centre County, which never failed to send its full quota to the front in time of war. On Saturday afternoon Capt. H. S. Taylor, of Co. L, N. G. P., of Bellefonte, received a letter from Col. W. L. Fullmer, of the 12th Regt., with headquarters at Lewisburg, asking if the local officers desired to be present at the Regular army maneuvers in the vicinity of Mexico.

It didn't take long for Capt. Taylor to make up his mind what to do, for he quickly sent the following telegram:

"Place the names of myself and my two Lieutenants, Richard Taylor and William H. Brown, on your list for service at any time."

This, of course, does not mean that the company will go, unless there is a special order to that effect. Capt. Taylor is made of the stuff that he will go where duty calls, no matter whether the bullets are flying around him like hail in a storm. If he were to go down there he would certainly return with a number of Mexican scalps dangling to his belt.

It is very amusing to see some members of Co. L walking around the streets of Bellefonte waiting for the call of Uncle Sam to go to the front and face bullet and shell. Some of them are exceedingly brave and are just anxiously waiting for the summons. After they get down there they will make those Mexicans hunt their holes. Then there are others who are trembling in their boots lest they have to face those Mexicans who are no respecters of persons. They would rather remain at home with their sweethearts than go down there and be brought back as subjects for a military funeral.

Conditions, however, are improving and it is likely that the fellows who go to the front will have more of a picnic than anything else. If they want to smell powder they will have to discharge a gun and sniff at the top of the barrel. It will be a little like taking one of George Bush's tours around the world at the expense of Uncle Sam.

We hope Capt. Taylor and his excellent company will get a chance to, at least, get to the border line and, like the Children of Israel, be able to look into the Mexican country, if not permitted to enter.

Prof. Pattee at Lock Haven.

Prof. Fred L. Pattee, Ph. D., head of the department of English of State College, delivered an address in Trinity Methodist church at Lock Haven, Sunday evening at 7.30 o'clock and his subject was "Visions." The occasion was the graduating of a class in the Sunday School Teachers' Training Course. Prof. Pattee is a well known author and authority in Sunday school pedagogy, and as an author in fiction his "Mary Garvin" has given him fame. He was greeted by a large and representative audience who were highly delighted with his discourse.

Grandpa "Teddy."

When Colonel Theodore Roosevelt returns from his western trip, it was learned on Monday, he will probably be hailed as "Grandpa Roosevelt."

The chief reason for his refusing many invitations to visit points in the southwest on his present trip is the desire to get to the California home of his son, Theodore Jr., early in April, when an interesting event is expected in that household. Mrs. Roosevelt and her daughter, Ethel, are now enroute to the west.

Gen. James A. Beaver to Speak.

Arrangements are being made to have general home coming of the old friends of Perry county, scattered in the West and this State, to meet at the Blain union picnic to be held at Sherman's Park on August 12. Ex-Governor James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, and Rev. J. Dill Calhoun, of Lacon, Ill., will speak. Both are former Perry countians. Ex-Governor Beaver was born at Millerstown and Rev. Mr. Calhoun at Cisna Run.

Mrs. C. W. Heckman, of State College, spent Saturday in Tyrone with friends.

Events Recalled By Quaint Old Papers

Last week we told of the preliminary plans of citizens of Centre County for extending aid to famine-stricken Ireland and Scotland, back in the late forties. We told of the public meeting held in the Court House, at Bellefonte, the earnest pleas made to the public to contribute in grain or money, and also of an appeal issued by a committee of prominent citizens appointed specially for that purpose. We promised that this week we would publish the appeal sent out by the committee and also the list of contributions of the several boroughs and townships in Centre County.

On March 4, 1847, the committee issued its address, embodying the proceedings of the public meeting referred to and fully described in our last week's issue, and to this added the following:

The foregoing proceedings will sufficiently explain themselves. It is true that the wailing cry of distress, which has come across the Atlantic, is from a foreign shore, but it is not in a foreign tongue, nor from a hostile people. Irishmen and Scotchmen battled side by side with our fathers in the war of Independence, and their blood was mingled with that of our own citizens, both on the Ocean and on the Land, during the war of 1812.

While a bountiful Providence has blessed the labours of the husbandmen in our highly favored country, and plenty and abundance is found on every side, gaunt famine is gnawing at the vitals of thousands of our fellow-men. No tongue can depict, no pen describe, the heart-rending details of disease and death, which are occurring every minute in every hour of the twenty-four. And this deplorable state of things must last—must last, did we say; nay, must still be growing worse and worse, until another harvest has been gathered.

The golden rule, "that we should do unto others as we would wish they should do unto us," is a Divine command, and in the same Holy Book we are taught, that "He that hath pity upon the poor, lendeth unto the Lord."

Delay, under this appalling distress, is cruelty, and we conjure you by every consideration that dignifies and ennobles humanity, to be "up and doing" in this labor of love.

Confident that the open-hearted and generous citizens of Centre County will respond to this call in a manner worthy of themselves, it is our intention to charter a boat, which will leave Eagle Forge about the first of April, and all contributions in flour or grain can be deposited at any point on the canal between that place and Flemington; and we request that when the deposits are made, receipts for the same may be transmitted to either of the undersigned. Places of deposit will also be obtained in Bellefonte and Milesburg, at which supplies may be deposited.

Once more, we would implore you to energetic action—to immediate and effectual effort—bearing in mind, and inculcating upon your neighbors and friends the Divine truth—"Blessed be the man that provideth for the sick and needy: the Lord shall deliver him in time of trouble."

A. G. Curtin,
James Burnside,
Central Committee for Centre County.

In August, 1847, the committee in question made a report to the people of Centre County, showing what contributions had been received and shipped to Philadelphia to be forwarded to Ireland and Scotland. This, it is a matter of pride to note, amounted to over $5,000. The report of the committee was as follows:

To the citizens of Centre County who so generously contributed to the relief of the starving population of Ireland and Scotland:

The undersigned, who were appointed the Central Committee, report:

That in the performance of their duty, they issued an address to their fellow citizens, which met with a hearty response from a large portion of the people. Generous and liberal contributions were made in nearly every township, and while the rich and wealthy gave of their abundance, the widow's mite was not withheld. Perhaps it would be proper to single out the members of the different township committees, who devoted their time, their influence, and their exertions in this "labor of love," but on reflection the committee think that this publicity would not comport with the views of those who are deserving of so much praise. An approving conscience will furnish its best reward.

The Borough of Bellefonte contributed 63 barrels of flour, 390¼ bushels of wheat, and $169.92½ in money.

Spring township contributed 276 bushels of wheat, 2 bushels of rye, 45 barrels of flour, and $3 in money.

Walker township contributed 34 barrels of flour.

Marion township contributed 22 barrels of flour and 34 bushels of wheat.

Howard township contributed 49½ bushels of wheat, 3 bushels of rye and $10 cash.

Liberty township contributed 54 barrels of wheat and 3 bushels of corn.

Miles township contributed 34 bushels of flour.

Penn township contributed 35 barrels of flour.

Haines township contributed 12 barrels of flour and $10.12½ in cash.

Gregg township contributed 75 barrels of flour.

Potter township contributed 64 barrels of flour.

Harris township contributed 42 barrels of flour.

Ferguson township contributed 300 bushels of wheat, and a box of clothing made up, worth at least, $75.

Half-moon township contributed 194 bushels of wheat.

Patton township contributed 106 bushels of wheat and $1 in cash.

The Borough of Milesburg contributed 69 bushels of wheat.

Boggs township contributed 80 bushels of wheat.

There has been so much difficulty in securing correct reports from some of the township committees that there may be some inaccuracies in the foregoing statement; but in the main it will be found to be substantially correct.

The greater part of the wheat was ground into flour, and we delivered to the Central Committee in Philadelphia five hundred and eighty-four barrels, as follows:

On the 10th of May, 1847, Three hundred and twenty-five barrels. Of this, one hundred and nine barrels were sent to Scotland, and two hundred and sixteen to Ireland.

On the 1st. of June—Forty barrels.

On the 23rd. of June—One hundred and nineteen barrels, viz: ninety-one barrels for Ireland and twenty-eight for Scotland.

On the 25th of June—Eighty-seven barrels. And now on the way, thirteen barrels.

This flour was worth, on the average, in Philadelphia, when delivered, about eight dollars a barrel. Its value was, therefore, $4,672.

Besides the flour, the committee (in consequence of being unable to secure casks) forwarded to Philadelphia at one time, three hundred and fifteen bushels of wheat, and at another, seventy-three and a half bushels of wheat and three of rye. The first lot of wheat was stored and sold by Messrs Carlisle and Gaskill, without any charge for their time and trouble, and netted $423.20, which by our direction was converted into cornmeal. Add to this the value of the clothing (seventy-five dollars) and the balance in the hands of the committee, $120.29, which has been forwarded to Allen Cuthbert, Agent of Relief Fund, in Philadelphia, to be expended in the purchase of meal or flour, and we have as the result of your liberality the handsome amount of $5,291.09.

It is proper here to remark, that when any of the township committees designated the proportions in which their contributions should be divided, that direction was followed. When this was not done, the undersigned, after consultation, forwarded three-fourths to Ireland and one-fourth to Scotland.

In concluding this report, we cannot refrain from expressing our deep and heart-felt gratitude for the liberal response that the citizens of Centre County have made to the call of suffering humanity. A wailing cry of distress came across the broad Atlantic—starvation and death were slaying their thousands—and from that abundance with which Providence has blessed you, you have contributed most generously. God grant that such an appeal may never again be made to you; but if it ever should, may it be met with the same spirit and with the same liberality that has characterized you on this occasion.

The foregoing statement was signed by the several members of the Central Committee who issued the appeal for contributions.

Struck in the Eye.

William Bathurst, of Bellefonte, is carrying with him a black eye and a swollen cheek. He looks as though he had been sparring with "Bob" Fitzsimmons who gave him just a little too hard a tap. "Billy" explains his predicament to be the result of his being hit by a young man near his home, at what is known as the glass works.

"TURKEY, $21, FOR JAIL" OH, YOU, PENNS VALLEY

Two Indignant Democrats Were on Warpath for Commissioners.

ONE LITTLE LETTER "N"

Such a Difference it Did Make When Two Irate Visitors to Court House Took a Second Look at an Item in the Auditors' Statement.

Two very indignant Penns Valley Democrats stormed into the Court House yesterday and peremptorily demanded to see Commissioners Woodring, Zimmerman and Dunlap. They were not only mad, but they wanted everybody to know it.

Into the Commissioners' office they sailed and quickly made known their mission. Levi Symmonds happened to be nearest to them and to him they addressed their remarks.

"Turkey? Turkey, $10? And for this fellow Delige?"

Levi, not quite able to grasp just what was going on, wisely stood pat and said nothing.

"Yes, it is not ohly turkey, $10, but it is again turkey, 1$11", interjected the other indignant visitor.

Levi was quite certain nodody had given him $21 worth of turkey and he was about ready to say so, when the first speaker, after recovering his breath, resumed:

"That makes $21 for turkey for a fellow what killed a woman and is in jail waiting to be hanged. Its an outrage and I want to get hold of these Commissioners and tell them so."

"Say," remarked Levi, who isn't easily stampeded, "will you gentlemen kindly start all over again and explain what this is about. So far as I am concerned, I don't care for turkey and $21 is more money than I have seen for a long time."

"Now, don't get smart," hotly rejoined one of the much-excited visitors. "Its in the Auditors' statement all about the turkey, and, for this fellow Delige in the jail."

Levi is an accommodating, fellow so he hunted up a copy of the Auditors' statement and handed it to the two visitors. They raced up and down column after column of figures until finally they came to a sudden stop. One of the visitors gasped and as he faced his companion his eyes fairly bulged from his head.

"Well, what do you think of that?," he fairly shrieked

"What do I think of $21 for turkey for the jail? Just what I told you I think about it. Its a disgrace and—"

"Wait a minute", broke in his rather dumb-founded companion. "We are all wrong. The statement doesn't say turkey $21 for the jail, at all. It says, turnkey, $21."

As the two visitors made a dash for the nearest door, one was overheard to remark to the other:

"Don't you tell your wife, and I won't tell mine."

Guffey and Dewalt Ousted.

At a meeting of the Democratic reorganization committee, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday, National Committeeman James M. Guffey and State Chairman Dewalt were ousted and their places filled by the selection of Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer and former Mayor Guthrie, the latter of Pittsburg. The action was taken by a vote of 4—3, after a bitter fight. Following the meeting the consensus of opinion was that the Democratic party in Pennsylvania is now more hopelessly divided than has been the case since Gaffey supplanted William F. Harrity in the National Committee, in 1896, after Harrity repudiated the candidacy of Bryan for President.

Curtin Dunklebarger Injured.

Curtin Dunklebarger, son of Grant Dunklebarger, of Pleasant Gap, is said to have been injured on the leg some time ago while hauling corn fodder on the Curtin farm, located east of Bellefonte, of which Cyrus Showers is the tenant. The wound never healed and recently he was taken to the Bellefonte hospital where a couple of small stones were taken from the leg which has given him relief.

Medical Society Meeting.

The Centre County Medical Society held its monthly meeting in the Grand Jury room, in the Court house, on Wednesday morning. An interesting paper was read by Dr. W. W. Feidt, of Bellefonte, on "Gall and Bladder Diseases." A discussion took place on "Infantile Paralysis." The meeting was both interesting and productive of great good to the profession.

TWO FLYING TRIPS TO NEBRASKA AS WITNESS

Prof. Pond Returned to Lincoln 24 Hours After Arriving Home.

TRAVELED 4800 MILES

State College Chemist Called as Witness on Bill in Nebraska Legislature—Home to Find Wire Necessitating Second Trip.

Two record-breaking trips in the last few weeks from State College to Lincoln, Nebraska, and return, covering all told 4800 miles, was the novel experience of Prof. G. C. Pond, whose testimony was wanted in regard to an important piece of legislation pending in the Nebraska Legislature. On short notice Dr. Pond made a flying dash across country to Nebraska, arriving at Lincoln for a hearing before a committee of the Legislature on Monday, February 27. Other engagements demanded that he leave Lincoln immediately after the hearing. Within 24 hours after his arrival home he received a message summoning him back to Nebraska. With hardly time to pack his satchel, he took the first train for the West, arriving in Lincoln in time to appear and testify at a second hearing before a committee of the Legislature. A few hours after retiring from the meeting, Dr. Pond started for home, arriving at State College on Monday of last week. The distance from State College to Lincoln is 1200 miles, making a total of 4800 miles covered during the two trips out and back.

It seems that some time ago a bill was introduced in the Nebraska Legislature requiring that acetyline lighting plants be installed outside of homes and other buildings. The Fire Insurance Underwriters Association of Nebraska were especially interested in the proposed legislation. Efforts were made to modify the bill, the aim being to meet the views of the Fire Insurance Underwriters Association and also those in favor of installing acetyline lighting plants. The accidental explosion of an imperfect lighting plant about one year ago caused some apprehension in regard to installing lighting plants inside homes. The manufacturers of the plants were interested in having the proposed legislation so modified as to permit the installing of plants inside buildings.

Dr. Pond, recognized as one of the formost chemists in the United States, was asked to go to Nebraska and testify before a committee of the Legislature in regard to the merits of the proposed bill. After he had given his testimony the committee having the bill in charge asked to be relieved of further consideration of it and the Legislature referred the measure to another committee. A second hearing was deemed necessary and again Dr. Pond was summoned to give his testimony. Although at no little inconvenience, he complied with both requests, visited Nebraska twice in the course of but a few days and landed back in State College somewhat tired but otherwise showing no ill effects from his novel experience.

The bill, regarding which he testified, is still before the Nebraska Legislature.

Hospital Notes.

Admitted for treatment—Mrs. George Inhoffe, State College; Mrs. Josephine Beckwith, Bellefonte; James Kelley, Ashland.

Discharged—Mrs. Celia Strunk, Bellefonte; Mrs. Bertha Bower, Bellefonte; Mrs. Edith Bullock, Bellefonte; Mrs. Susan Saul, Pennsylvania Furnace; Mrs. Anna Curry, Yarnell; Mrs. Mary Archey, State College.

Ambulance Kept Busy.

March 30th, next, will mark the end of the first year that the new ambulance has been in service for the Bellefonte hospital. Up to yesterday the ambulance had answered 67 calls, or an average of about one call in every five days of the year.

Death of Old Citizen.

Elias Stover died at his late home at Rebersburg on Monday night. Deceased was one of the oldest citizens of Centre County. He was aged 91 years and 11 months. Funeral services were held today at 10 o'clock, interment being made at Rebersburg. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Howard Krape, of Rebersburg.

Receipts and Expenditures

—OF—

CENTRE COUNTY FOR 1910

To the Honorable Ellis L. Orvis, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Pennsylvania:

The Board of County Auditors, H. B. Pontius, of Bellefonte Borough, R. D. Musser, of Gregg Township, and C. U. Hoffer, of Philipsburg Borough, met at the Court House, January 2nd, 1911, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Assembly in such cases made and provided, to audit the accounts of the various officials of the County for the year 1910.

Written notices were served on the County Commissioners, County Treasurer, Prothonotary and Sheriff to deliver all books and vouchers pertaining to their respective offices for examination and audit.

The books of the County Commissioners show an expenditure of One Hundred and Seventy-eight Thousand Six Hundred and Thirty-nine and 06-100 dollars ($178,639.06) paid out during the year 1910. The accounts of G. G. Fink, County Treasurer, were carefully examined and checked with vouchers and found to be correct, and the receipts of the office exceed the expenditures, leaving in the hands of the Treasurer a balance of Three Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty and 95-100 dollars ($3860.95) due the County.

We also find there was collected during the year the amount of Fourteen Thousand Two Hundred and Seventy-four and 64-100 dollars ($14274.64), arising from Unseated Land Taxes and paid out to the different Townships for Road, Poor and School purposes.

We find in the hands of the Treasurer a balance of sheep funds of Three Thousand Five Hundred and Forty-three and 22-100 dollars ($3543.22), arising from Dog Tax. We find there was collected during the year 1910 Two Thousand Seven Hundred dollars ($2700.00), arising from Liquor License, and was paid out to the different Boroughs and Townships.

Upon examination of bill of fees, costs, etc., of A. B. Kimport, Prothonotary, we find there is due him from the County the sum of One Hundred Eighty-eight and 21-100 dollars ($188.21).

The account of W. E. Hurly, Sheriff, was carefully examined and found to be correct, and find there is due him from the County the sum of Two Thousand Two Hundred and Fifteen and 35-100 dollars ($2215.35).

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 25th day of February, A. D. 1911.

Two Sons of Pennsylvania.

Advices from Washington agree that Senator Penrose will succeed Senator Aldrich as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Senate. Senator Penrose thus becomes the foremost figure in the Senate and the logical leader of the Republican forces in the special session of Congress, which will convene on April 4. Senator Penrose's advancement to the undisputed Republican leadership in the highest legislative body in the world is, to our mind, a rather striking commentary on the estimate of his worth held by a small minority in the Republican party in this State. That a Pennsylvanian should forge ahead until he commands the Republican leadership of the United States Senate is, and should be so regarded, an honor to Pennsylvania. As chairman of the Senate Finance Committee Senator Penrose will speak with the authority of and stand shoulder to shoulder with the administration of President Taft.

It is an unusual occurrence that a single State should be conspicuously represented at Washington as is the case at the present time. In the cabinet of Mr. Taft the chief adviser of the President is Philander C. Knox. In the Senate, as the spokesman of the President and the guiding force in championing the policies of the administration, is Mr. Penrose. We cite the instance as illustrating how thoughtlessly some persons err when they idly remark that Pennsylvania has in recent years been sadly lacking in furnishing men who have figured prominently in shaping governmental affairs. Of all the States in the Union Pennsylvania alone has the proud distinction of being able to point to the fact that one of her sons is Secretary of State in the cabinet of a Republican President and that another is the conceded leader of the Republican party in the Senate. And this at a time when the Republican party is passing through the most crucial period witnessed by the present generation of Republicans.

When Mr. Knox was called into the cabinet his critics were prompt in pronouncing him a merely shrewd lawyer, one whose sympathies were entirely with corporations and trusts. Likewise, when Mr. Penrose entered the United States Senate his critics described him as a politician a man wholly lacking in capacity or attainment. It is unfortunately true that Mr. Knox and Mr. Penrose have not received at home full credit for their services at Washington, but it is equally true that by those at the nation's capital both sons of Pennsylvania are ranked as among the foremost men of the country.

President Taft has appointed Andrew B. Dunsmore, of Tioga County to the position of United States District Attorney for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. Mr. Dunsmore succeeds to the vacancy created when Charles B. Witmer was appointed to succeed Judge Archbald, the latter having been named as a judge of the new United States Commerce Court. Mr. Dunsmore's appointment was promptly confirmed by the Senate. He is a lawyer of marked ability and well qualified in every way for his new duties. For several years he served as an assistant to District Attorney Witmer. As a member of the Legislature from Tioga County for several terms Mr. Dunsmore rendered valuable service to the State. He was a loyal supporter of Governor Stuart and had charge of much of the legislation fathered by the Stuart administration. "Andy" Dunsmore is a young man whose splendid career has been of his own making. We rejoice with him in the bright future that seems open to him.

Home From Europe.

J. C. Gilbody, better known in Bellefonte as "Jack" Gilbody, with his wife, returned Saturday morning to their home in Mill Hall, from a trip to Europe. They were accompanied by Master Leonard Gilbody, a nephew of Mr. Gilbody, who will make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbody. Mrs. Gilbody is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Peters, of Hecla. The party was on the ocean sixteen days on the return trip and experienced a very rough voyage, being compelled to remain in their rooms for several days.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Official Program Which is Being Carried Out this Week at Bloomsburg.

This week the ministers and laymen of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church gathered at Bloomsburg in annual session. The examining board met on Monday evening and also was in session on Tuesday.. Tuesday evening occured the anniversary of the church temperance society. Rev. J. H. Daugherty, pastor of Ridge Avenue Church, Harrisburg, presided. At 9 o'clock Wednesday morning the conference communion service was held, in charge of Bishop Anderson and the district superintendents. This was followed by the formal organization of conference. In the afternoon a missionary sermon was preached by Rev. John C. Collins and meetings of the Freedmen's Aid Society and the Board of Conference Claimants were held. In the evening at 5.30 the Dickinson College alumni banquet took place at the Lutheran Church. At 7.30 occurred the anniversary of the Board of Sunday Schools, Rev. J. E. Bell presiding

Business matters will occupy the attention of conference this (Thursday) morning. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon occurs the anniversary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, Mrs. M. E. Purdy presiding. C. K. Gibson will conduct an evangelistic conference at 3.30, and 5.30 the Drew Theological Seminary alumni banquet will be held. In the evening at 7.30 is the anniversary of the Board of Foreign Missions. Friday morning at 11 o'clock semi-centennial addresses will be made by Revs. W. W. Evans, George Leidy, H. C. Pardoe and E. T. Swartz, The Woman's Home Missionary Society anniversary will be held in the afternoon and the anniversary of the Conference Annuity Fund and Preachers' Aid Society in the evening.

Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the bishop will receive and make an address to the incoming class. At 3.30 will be the anniversary of the Epworth League, M. E. Swartz presiding. The Dickinson Seminary alumni banquet will be held at 5.30 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock a concert will be given by the Mountain Ash male voice choir.

The conference love feast will be held Sunday morning, followed with a sermon by Bishop Anderson and ordination of deacons. The ordination of elders will occur in the afternoon at 2.30. A memorial service will be held in the conference church at 3 o'clock and at the same hour there will be a men's mass meeting in the Opera House in charge of Rev. Dr. L. W. Munhall, of Philadelphia. The evening meeting will be in charge of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. On Monday evening Dr. Munhall will give a lecture on "The Book of Books." The conference session is scheduled to close Tuesday morning.

Among the business that will claim the attention of the conference will be the proposition submitted by the laymen calling for an additional district on the plea that five superintendents are not sufficent to give proper supervision to the churches of the conference. A proposition to promote the young men of the conference on the ground of actual merit will also be discussed. The choice of a sucessor to Rev. William W. Evans, D. D., superintendent of the Harrisburg district, will be anxiously awaited. A number of pastors are looking with covetous eyes upon the position.

The conference which is the largest in Methodism, outside of some of the mission conferences, is composed of five districts, viz: Altoona, Danville, Harrisburg, Juniata and Williamsport. There are 311 pastoral charges within the bounds of the conference, which has a constituency of 72,000.

This is the most interesting and important conference of recent years. There have been eleven deaths during the year and five of these were in effective relation, which means that the same number of churches are virtually without pastors, and must be supplied by the conference. The churches made vacant by deaths are the following:

First church, Berwick; First church, Shamokin; Second church, Huntingdon; New Cumberland, and Espy. The College church at Carlisle will be made vacant as Dr. J. H. Black, its present pastor, will take a superannuated relation. This will make an unprecedented condition in the history of the conference and will necessitate many changes in pastors.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease, that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer. One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

JUDGE GORDON DEAD

Passed Away on Friday Morning at His Home at Clearfield.

Former Judge Cyrus Gordon, who was well and favorably known in Bellefonte, died Friday morning, at 5.30 o'clock, at his residence in Clearfield. He had been in failing health for several years with diabetes. The last week of his illness he began to fail rapidly and the end was looked for almost at any time. The following obituary was clipped from the Clearfield Republican:

"Cyrus Gordon was born near Hecla Furnace, Centre County in 1846, making his age 64 years, 3 months and 9 days. He was the fifth son and sixth child of James and Mary Steel Gordon. He entered the sophomore class of the Agricultural, now State College, in 1864 and graduated in 1866. Afterwards returned as tutor and took post graduate course; 1867-69 studied law in Michigan University, Ann Harbor. He also read law in the office of former Judge Samuel Linn in Bellefonte. In 1869 he was admitted to the bar in Bellefonte. In 1870 he came to Clearfield and was connected with office of McEnally & McCurdy for some months. He was admitted to the Clearfield bar that same year. Shortly afterwards he entered into partnership with Thomas H. Murray in the practice of law which partnership existed until January 1, 1894, when Judge Gordon went upon the bench of this district, then as now composed of Clearfield county. He was elected in November, 1893, defeating Judge David L. Krebs for re-election.

He completed a full term of 10 years, retiring January 1, 1904, when succeeded by Judge Allison O. Smith, who had defeated Judge Gordon for re-election the preceding November.

After retiring from the bench Judge Gordon practiced law, being most of that time connected with the State Pure Food Department as counsel. In the practice of law here he was associated with Harry Boulton.

Judge Gordon was married in 1873 to Miss Mary, eldest daughter of the late John F. Weaver. They had four children, three of whom survive: Dr. John W., Leslie D. and James T., all of whom were at the bedside of their father with their mother when the end came.

Cyrus Gordon was a broad minded, big hearted, public spirited citizen who made friends fast and kept them. He was very kind of heart and always the devoted, loving indulgent husband and father. He was an able lawyer a just judge and ever an upright, active, progressive citizen, a kind neighbor and a loyal friend. He was a lifelong Republican and also a lifelong member of the Presbyterian church.

The only brother who survives him is Q. Newton Gordon, of New York City, who has charge of the affairs of the Standard Oil Co. in the West India Islands. He is there now and it was impossible for him to get to Clearfield in time to attend the funeral, which took place on Monday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The deceased was an uncle of Mrs. Joseph L. Montgomery, of Bellefonte, and quite frequently visited here.

Judge Gordon was often a conspicuous figure in the courts of Centre County where he often was found in the trial of important cases."

To Meet in Tyrone.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Huntingdon Presbytery will hold its thirty-fifth annual meeting in Tyrone Presbyterian church on March 22 and 23. Mr. Higginbottom and Dr. Bertha Caldwell, representing India; Dr. E. McDowell, of Persia; Mrs. W. C. Johnston from West Equatorial Africa and Rev. J. C. Day will address the meetings. There will be conferences on "Methods of Work," and on "Personal Preparation for Work," and some of the woman's missionary jubilee features will be seen in a missionary pageant and choir of women's voices. The representatives of the Women's and Young People's societies and bands of the presbytery desiring entertainment or railroad excursion orders or places at the lunch which will be served by a sister church on Thursday, at 25 cents a plate, should send their names at once to Mrs. J. L. Porter, Tyrone, Pa.

One of the features of this meeting will be the soul-inspiring music by a large and well trained choir. Mrs. W. H. Wilson, Miss Mary H. Linn and others will represent the Bellefonte Presbyterian church at the meeting.

Death of Mrs. Welch.

Mrs. Elizabeth Welch, wife of Robert Welch, of Vail, died at her home on Saturday night at 9 o'clock, from heart trouble. Deceased was a daughter of John and Isabella Mountz of near Bald Eagle. She was born July 1, 1855. Besides her parents she leaves these sons and daughters: Charles, of Tyrone; Thomas, at home; Joseph, of Bald Eagle; Mrs. Foster Woomer, of Bald Eagle, and Miss Agnes Welch, of Braddock. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

MRS. H. C. HOLTER DEAD

Well Known Resident of Howard Passes Away Suddenly.

On Friday morning, last, about 11 o'clock, Mr. Henry C. Holter died very suddenly at her home at Howard. She was getting dinner and while working about the stove she fell to the floor and became unconscious. No one was in the house at the time, but when her husband came he found her lying on the floor. Apparently she was about to put the teakettle on the front of the stove when she had an attack of heart failure or a stroke of paralysis. A physician was called but by the time he reached the home she was beyond all medical aid.

Thus a good mother and a faithful wife passed into the great beyond in almost a twinkling of an eye. She was a true Christian woman, loved and respected by all who knew her, and especially by those who resided in the community where she spent most of her life. She was the daughter of Robert and Mary E. Armagast Hall, and was born near Unionville on June 30, 1847, making her age 63 years, 8 months and 10 days. At the age of eight years she went to Howard, where she made her home with J. Newlin Hall and wife, with whom she lived until she was twenty years old.

She was married June 30th, 1868 to Henry C. Holter, who with the following children survive: Daniel W. at home; Mrs. Nannie Thompson, of Howard; Mrs. Lizzie Gordon, of Columbus, Ohio; John S. of Johnsonburg; R. Bower, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Mary Almeda Kundtz, of Columbus; Ohio; David A., Philip C., Cameron B., and H. Walter, at home. She is also mourned by four brothers and one sister: Daniel, David and Andrew, of Unionville; Mrs. Eliza Peters, of California, and William, of Minnesota. Her daughter, Mrs. Gordon, was unable to attend the funeral on account of the illness of one of her children.

The funeral was held on Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Rev. R. S. Taylor, assisted by Rev. W. W. Rhoads. The casket bearers were her six sons. Interment was made in the Schenck cemetery.

The other day John Strunk, one of the employes in the P. R. R. freight station, Bellefonte, struck at a box with a hatchet. He missed it and hit his knee. Of course, he thought it was all up, but when the wound was examined it was found to be but a slight laceration.

Stouffer—Pennington.

Harry Otto, of Bellefonte, was a business visitor in town on Tuesday.

Dr. Walter J. Kurtz was a business visitor in Bellefonte on Tuesday.

Squire A. A. Pletcher was a business visitor to Lock Haven on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Candy, of Tyrone, visited relatives here on Sunday.

District Deputy M. M. Hunter of the M. W. A., of Altoona, was a visitor in town last week.

Abe Weber, Charles McMurtrie, and N. H. Schenck were business visitors to Bellefonte on Thursday last.

Harry Williams and wife, of Altoona, visited at the home of his parents several days at the close of the week.

Peter Robb, Charles Yearick and daughter Zelma and Mrs. Clarence Yearick were passengers to Mill Hall on Thursday.

Rev. R. S. Taylor completed another year's work last Sunday and on Tuesday left for the annual conference in session at Bloomsburg.

Stuart Taylor returned home on Tuesday from the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, the institution having been closed on account of scarlet fever.

Mrs. Christ Decker and William Peters, of Bellefonte, and Miss Anna Rockey, of Zion, were week end visitors at the home of N. H. Yearick at Jacksonville.

Dr. Frank R. Oldring, a veterinary surgeon, of Philadelphia, has located in Howard and will take up practice at once. Mr. Oldring comes well recommended in his line of work.

Rev. Snyder, the newly appointed pastor of the Evangelical church, and family, will arrive this week. Rev. Rhoades will not leave for his new station at Nanticoke for several weeks.

Editor Dunham of the Hustler is having his troubles the past few weeks. First his linotype got "out of fix," then the floor began to give way under the machine and he had to built a concrete foundation from the solid earth up and is now again ready to operate the "critter."

A large oil lamp used to heat a portion of the postoffice was accidentally upset last Thursday and the oil that was spilled on the floor caught fire from the flame in the lamp, causing a moment's excitement. The burning oil was quickly extinguished by smothering it with carpet which one of the employes hastily secured.

The sudden death of her next-door neighbor, Mrs. H. C. Holter, caused Mrs. J. H. Wagner to relapse in the critical condition from which she had been steadily recovering. Mrs. Holter had spent the afternoon previous to her death with Mrs. Wagner while other members of the family were away from home.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the funeral of Mrs. H. C. Holter on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Hall, David Hall, Mrs. Andrew Hall, J. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall, Miles Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall, Miss Anna Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shull and Miss Edith Zimmerman, of Uniontown; Mrs. Susan Hall and Mrs. P. B. Loder, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Mollie Bolick, of Salona; Miss Jennie Holter and Mrs. Mabel Fletcher Mann, of Williamsport; Josiah and Miss Sue Holter, of Curtin; Mrs. J. Z. Long, Mrs. A. O. Yerger and George Loder, of Bellefonte; Miss Grace Schenck, of Milesburg; Mrs. W. I. Harter and son Norris, of Eagleville; Frank Wetzler, of Milesburg.

John B. Holter had the misfortune last week of losing his pocketbook containing about $65, but was just as fortunate in having it found by honest hands. He had been at the home of Thomas Pletcher and had paid Mrs. Pletcher some money. Upon his arrival home he missed the purse and returning at once asked Mr. Pletcher if he had seen it or heard of it being found. Securing a latern he began a search along the route he had taken to reach home. While this search was being made Mr. Pletcher told his wife of Mr. Holter's loss. "Why," she said, "there is a pocket book lying in there on the floor but I thought it was one the children had today." She got it and it proved to be Mr. Holter's with the $65 in and it was soon returned to its owner.

Pine Grove Mills.

Frank Reed is somewhat better.

Miss Neese is being entertained at the home of Mrs. Miller.

County Commissioner Jacob Woodring was a visitor here on Wednesday.

Our venerable friend, J. G. Heberling, is about the same at this writing.

Jacob Keller and wife are spending a few days with their sons in the "Smoky City."

The Ard sale on Wednesday was well attended. Pretty nearly everything brought fair prices.

Miss Maud Decker will, on Monday, next, return to her duties as milliner for Joseph & Co., at Bellefonte.

Don't forget the entertainment on Saturday evening, to be given by the juniors and seniors of the High School.

After keeping his fine bay mare for fifteen years, James A. Decker recently sold it to Alex. McCoy, of Potters Mills.

H. H. Goss, Walter O'Bryan, J. A. Decker and Elmer Royer transacted business at the County Seat during the week.

Miss Grace Dale and Miss Johnson, after a delightful visit with friends in New Jersey, have returned to their homes, on Main Street.

J. N. Everts, our popular merchant, was a Bellefonte visitor on Monday. His mission there was to consult Dr. Emerick, the Hickory Corners doctor.

Try Welch's grape juice—at Green's.

Unionville.

W. B. Rankin, of Bellefonte, transacted business here on Monday.

Harry Harper, who has been suffering from grip, is able to be about again.

Edward Iddings, who is employed at Masten, Pa., returned home on Saturday.

William and Chesney Morrison, of Altoona, spent Sunday with their parents here.

Prof. V. L. Wagner and family, after spending the winter in Altoona, returned home on Saturday.

Toner Calhoun and wife, of Altoona, spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Harry Calhoun.

Forrest Gill and family, of Sandy Ridge, spent Sunday with the former's parents at this place.

Miss Mary Turner on Friday returned to Philipsburg, where she is employed as a stenographer in a large store.

Philip Stere, of Ligonier, after spending a few days with relatives here, returned home on Sunday evening.

Charles Griest, of Barnesboro, and Edward Griest, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with relatives and friends at this place.

We are glad to note that J. C. Smith, who fractured his hip about two weeks ago, is rapidly recovering and is again able to be up.

Rev. R. S. Oyler on Sunday night, last, delivered his last sermon before going to conference. Everybody hopes that he will be returned to this charge.

John Rhown and Joseph Resides departed on Monday for Ohiopyle, Pa., where they have secured lucrative positions on the B. & O. engineering corps.

Don't forget the home talent entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings, March 17 and 18. All turn out and see a first class show and also help the Y. M. C. E. along.

Harry McDonnell, of Philipsburg, is negotiating with the P. R. R. to build coal sheds at this place. This would certainly be a nice thing for our town. We hope he may succeed in securing the grounds from the company.

We are sorry to say that our venerable neighbor, Squire Riley Pratt, is in a serious condition, suffering from a complication of diseases. We hope that he may soon take a turn for the better and that it won't be long until he is able to be about again.

On Monday afternoon, about 2 o'clock, George Morrison's house caught fire from a spark falling on the roof. The alarm was quickly spread over town and the streets soon filled with people. A bucket brigade was at once formed and ladders secured. The flames were cutting through the roof when the firemen got started, but through the effective work of the volunteers the fire was soon under control and eventually extinguished. Too much praise cannot be given the entire brigade, and especially Harry G. Musser, who is always among the first on hand in all cases of emergency. The people of our town certainly appreciate Mr. Musser. Many buildings in town have been saved through his gallant work.

Blanchard.

George W. Eaton has been on the sick list for several days.

Chauncey DeLong, of Philadelphia, was an over-Sunday visitor with relatives here.

The sum of $35 was realized at the chicken and waffle supper held on Saturday at the hospitable home of Thomas Bechdel. It was held under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Discipal church.

Undertaker Edwin Bechel is congratulating himself that one and possibly both horses of his fine team was not killed in a runaway on Sunday morning. His team was hitched at the N. Y. C. station and in some manner worked loose the tie rope. Once free, the horses ran down the alley, back of the coal sheds, and while turning plunged into a fence at the rear of John P. Wynn's home. One of the horses tried to jump over the fence, but was held back by the second horse and stopped when but half-way over the palings. With some difficulty the harness was removed and the horse was soon freed. Beyond a few bruises and scratches the horse was uninjured.

Woodward.

Calvin Stover, of Woodward, and Mrs. Emma Addleman, from Hosterman, West Virginia, were married last week. Congratulations.

The members of the Evangelical Association Sunday School will have an Easter service on the evening of Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Austin Meyer, of Coburn, is spending several days with friends here.

Rev. Caris preached an interesting sermon on Sunday morning in the Evangelical Association church. This was his first sermon for the conference year.

A. C. Slifer had business in Lewisburg last week.

Mrs. William Lutz and daughter, Miss Mable, accompanied by Miss Flossie Runkle, are visiting friends in Zion.

Dale Walter, from Lewisburg, is visiting at the Joseph Ard home.

Mrs. Charles Hosterman and Mrs. James Weaver are visiting relatives in Buffalo, N. Y.

Salaries Raised.

The salaries of ministers in the Central Pennsylvania conference of the United Evangelical church were raised $100 per year at conference at York. The resolution providing for the increase fixes the minimum salaries of married clergymen at $700 per year and house rent.

For pure Olive Oil—25c, 50c and $1 00 at Green's.

Died at Wilkinsburg.

Mrs. Frank Blair died Monday morning at the home of her son, George Blair, at Wilkinsburg. She had been a sufferer from cancer of the stomach for about two years. She was 71 years of age and was a consistent Christian. She was a member of the Methodist church. Surviving her are the following children: J. W., of Fillmore; George, of Wilkinsburg, and Mrs. R. P. Rice, of Uniontown; also two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Viock, of Pittsburg, and Mrs. Mary Miller, of Jefferson county. The remains, accompanied by relatives and friends, were brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon and taken to Fillmore, where the funeral services were held in the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. C. C. Shuey, assisted by Rev. C. W. Winey and others. Interment was made at the Branch.

Death at Blanchard.

Mrs. Sophia J. Brown, widow of Benjamin Brown, died on Saturday, last, at her late home at Blanchard. She had been in poor health for the last year, her death being due to Bright's disease. Her husband preceded her to the grave in October, last. Surviving are the following sisters and brothers: Miss Katherine, who made her home with the deceased; Mrs. Frank Williams, of Salona; George A. Johnson, of Lock Haven, and Ellery Johnson, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Deceased was aged 56 years and was well and favorably known. She was a devout, Christian woman and was held in high esteem by all who knew her. Funeral services were held on Tuesday, conducted by Rev. W. H. Patterson, of the Disciple church. Interment was made in the Cedar Hill cemetery.

The Fifth and Last.

On Friday evening of next week the fifth and last entertainment in the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. Star course will be held. It will consist of home talent, under the direction of Dr. Weston, the able and efficient general secretary and physical director. The program will be of a physical culture character and will consist of a wrestling match by the State College Wrestling Team, boys calisthenics, girls fencing, swinging of electrical clubs, and gymnasium exercises of various kinds. This entertainment will be of a most unique and interesting character, and is certain to please. The Y. M. C. A. auditorium should be crowded.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Mrs. W. L. Daggett left Wednesday for New York City.

C. W. Snyder, of Milton, formerly a resident of Bellefonte, transacted business and greeted his friends here several days this week.

Official announcement was made at Washington, D. C., last week of the appointment of P. Maguire as postmaster at Powelton, Centre County.

Mrs. Matthew McGinnis, of Indiana, arrived in Bellefonte on Saturday and is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Scofield, on Thomas Street.

James C. Nolan, one of Walker township's sterling Republicans, was a genial and welcome visitor at "The Republican" office one day this week.

On Tuesday, Capt. H. S. Taylor issued orders to the members of Co. L, to report at the Bellefonte armory every Friday evening for drill and instructions.

Hon. Ellis L. Orvis and wife, of Bellefonte, left Wednesday afternoon for New York City. Mrs. Harvey their daughter, left on the same train for Wynnewood.

Rev. F. W. Biddle, of Roaring Springs, passed through Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon on his way to the M. E. conference, at Bloomsburg. He was met at the train by C. C. Shuey.

Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, of Bellefonte, received a letter this week from his son, Edmund Hayes, who is now on the scene of the Mexican War. His description of what is going on there is quite interesting.

Rev. John Hewitt went to Williamsport on Wednesday afternoon where in the evening he delivered a lecture. He has been making weekly visits down there on the same mission for several months.

The Centre County Club, at Pennsylvania State College, is making extendsive preparations for an Easter dance at the College. The committee is composed of Norman Kirk, Harold Gardner and Ogden Malin.

George Eckley who until recently conducted the cigar and tobacco store under the Bellefonte First National bank, left on Wednesday with his family for Dayton, Ohio, where he is employed by the National Cash Register Co.

On Friday evening the Altoona basketball team will be in Bellefonte and play the local Y. M. C. A. team. The game will be called at 8 o'clock, and will be an even scrap. This is the place to go if you desire to see some fun and good playing.

Hon. P. Gray Meek went to Pittsburg, on Tuesday and returned Wednesday with his grandson, Thomas King Morris, who would, ten to one, rather live in Bellefonte than in the Smoky City. He has more room to spread himself here than in a big city, and that is what a boy likes.

J. Will Mayes, whose push and enterprise, coupled with a thorough knowledge of the business, have made the Howard Marble and Granite Works one of the leading institutions of central Pennsylvania, was a welcome caller at "The Republican" office a day or two ago. Mr. Mayes attends to his affairs in a strictly business way, and in line with this principle he reminded us that his subscription to "The Republican" was due and advanced it another year. Will, our hat is off to you.

B. H. S. Basket Ball Scores.

Six victories and but two defeats is the proud record of the Bellefonte High School basket ball team, which has just closed its season. The team, in the several games played, scored a total of 285 points, to a total of 162 points scored by opponents. We extend congratulations to the Bellefonte boys. The schedule of games played and comparative scores follows:

Dec. 15, State H. S., 12; B. H. S., 23.
Jan. 6, Renovo H. S., 36; B. H. S., 25.
Jan. 20, Jersey Shore H. S., 10; B. H. S., 50.
Feb 3, Philipsburg H. S., 16; B. H. S., 44.
Feb. 11, Jersey Shore H. S., 15; B. H. S., 38.
Feb. 17, Philipsburg H. S., 30; B. H. S., 19.
Feb. 18, Lock Haven H. S., 15; B. H. S., 20.
Feb. 24, Lock Haven H. S., 28; B. H. S., 66.

The last four games were played away from home. State College, Jersey Shore and Lock Haven failed to win a single game from the Bellefonte boys. Renovo won the only game played and Philipsburg broke even.

Liquid Cures Eczema Where Salves Fail

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25 cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

FAMINE AND DEATH

Rev. William Bible and Rev. Samuel McClure Fighting the Plague.

As Bellefonte has several missionaries in China in the persons of Revs. William Bible and Samuel McClure, together with Frank P. Bible, it will be interesting to know that besides preaching the gospel they are now assisting in fighting the famine and the plague that is sweeping over China. The known deaths from the plague number 30,000 and, according in the official statistics the death rate averages 200 daily. But the officials have little knowledge of the conditions in the interior, or if they have, they are not permitting the facts to be known. There are few or no foreigners in the interior, and conditions there for this reason are not attracting much public attention.

It is impossible even to estimate the number of deaths that have resulted from lack of food, Dr. Samuel Cochran, an American who is engaged in the work of relief, writes: "One million people will die before the first crop is harvested. This will be scanty, because the people have not the strength to till the soil, and no animals remain for plowing."

The Chinese are directing their efforts to control the plague. It is estimated that 2,000,000 people are without food and are existing on roots, grasses or anything that affords the slightest possibility of nourishment. These possessing grain guard it night and day.

Rendered desperate by hunger, bands of hundreds of starving refugees are roving through the famine-stricken area of China, plundering and killing and a reign of terror prevails. At Kunshan, a walled village within fifty miles of Shanghai, the villagers, after a desperate raid in which stores were looted and many killed, meted out punishment peculiarly Chinese in its callousness to the raiding refugees. A band of more than five hundred are reported to have been surrounded in a compound and burned to death.

The refugees had taken possession of Kunshan and for two days ransacked the stores of everything eatable, killing or wounding all who resisted.

Many villagers were slain and others were taken prisoners and held for ransom. When the raiders moved on to plunder the next village the Kunshan people held a council of war and offered to pursue the fugutives. They came up with them in a small village and surrounded the house. The gates were locked and the house fired.

The refugees brought five prisoners into the compound in view of the siegers and threatened to kill them unless the siege was raised and the villagers pressing them back to the burning buildings, they slowly hacked the five men to death. Three other prisoners were tied to stakes in the burning building and were burned with their captors.

Missionaries who are distributing relief tell of many tragic occurrences—a man on his way to meet them dying on the road; another falling by the wayside as he was returning to his family with a packet of rice. They describe the people as horrible skeletons, some of them with limbs hideously swollen. From the famine the death rate is several thousand daily.

A Special Medicine for Kidney Ailments.

Many elderly people have found in Foley's Kidney Remedy a quick relief and permanent benefit from kidney and bladder ailments and from annoying urinary irregularities due to advancing years. Isaac N. Regan, Farmer, Mo., says: "Foley's Kidney Remedy effected a complete cure in my case and I want others to know of it." Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Train Through to Sunbury.

It is said that by the 1st of June the passenger trains on the Tyrone and Lewisburg division of the Pennsylvania railroad will run through to Sunbury instead of connecting with the P. & E. at Montandon. At present Lewisburg is the terminus which compels the passengers to make the change at Montandon which is very undesirable, especially in inclement weather. Of course a change in the time for running the trains may be expected.

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Bellefonte, Many Citizens Tell of it.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Bellefonte still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

James H. Rine, 239 W. High Street, Bellefonte, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a wonderful kidney remedy. Ten years ago I first used them and at that time I told, in a public statement, of the benefit I had received. That statement still holds good. I have often urged my friends to try Doan's Kidney Pills and in every instance where my advice has been followed, relief has been received from kidney trouble. Whenever I hear anyone complaining of kidney disorders, I advise a trial of Doan's Kidney Pills, knowing that they will have beneficial effect."

Focht vs. Johnson.

A near personal encounter between Representative Focht of Pennsylvania and Ben Johnson of Kentucky enlivened proceedings at Washington, on Friday March 3rd, and brought many members to their feet in apprehension. With Mr. Johnson's promise to Mr. Focht to "see you later," the trouble blew over and Mr. Focht gained his point.

Mr. Focht had passed through the House earlier in the day a bill providing for the opening and extension of Van Buren street in the city of Washington.

The District Committee of the House reported the bill favorably and it passed the Senate, Mr. Focht taking charge of it in the House. After he had passed the bill he learned that Mr. Johnson intended to move a reconsideration of the vote in order to kill the measure. Getting in ahead of Mr. Johnson the Pennsylvania member moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill passed and that this motion be tabled. The effect of the motion was to prevent Mr. Johnson from killing the bill.

Mr. Johnson objected heatedly, saying he intended to kill the bill. "We will see about that later," said Mr. Focht. "What I want now is fair play from the gentleman from Kentucky."

"What is that," shouted Johnson, starting towards Focht. Focht repeated what he had said. Many members of the House intervened, and the incident was closed with Johnson's comment of seeing Focht later. A rollcall adopted the Focht motion saving his bill.

Mr. Focht is quite well known in Bellefonte and his friends will be glad an undertaker wasn't needed.

Never can tell when you'll mash a finger or suffer a cut, bruise, burn or scald. Be prepared. Dr. Thomas Eclectic Oil instantly relieves the pain—quickly cures the wound.

Fear a Deluge.

Fearful of a catastrophe similar to the Johnstown flood, the citizens of Tyrone have applied for an injunction restraning the Tyrone Gas and Water company and Vipond Construction company from proceeding with the work of making an extension to the town's storage reservoir. It is alleged that because of the manner in which the construction work is being done the character of the reservior would be a menace to the town.

It is rumored that Rev. J. Ellis Bell will likely become the successor to Rev. Dr. W. W. Evans as superintendent of the Harrisburg district of the Methodist church. Rev Bell is well known in Bellefonte and his friends here hope to hear of his appointment.

Hooray for the Harem!

The ladies! God bless 'em! What should we do without them? Why, we couldn't do at all. Yet how we abuse them! We men are never the subjects of criticism as they are. Fools are we and, we are content to go on forever dressed in the same crude old styles that our grandfathers bequeathed. The tubular system has enslaved us. We wear a tube upon our heads. We thrust our arms into a pair of tubes. We incase our trunks in tubes, and in place of the charming hose of Robin Hood days we hide our shapely limbs in tubes, says the New York World.

Our better halves have always been more sensible about the question of dress than we have. Why not trust them in their choice of the harem skirt? It would do more than anything else to liberate them. The harem skirt is not half as immodest as the hobble skirt. It cannot be considered to be immoral. The present method of dress most assuredly is.

Unwittingly woman has picked up all kinds of disease germs and carried them home to her little ones. All hail to the harem skirt, which, instead of bringing in its train inconvenience, discomfort and disease, will emancipate the gentler sex and give it freedom of carriage, leaving upon coming generations a blessing they will easily appreciate.

No Cause for Alarm.

H. A. Surface, of the state division of zoology, declares that the seventeen-years locusts are not likely to do much damage to the fruit trees in Pennsylvania. Most people are more scared over the letter on the wing of the cicada than over the possibility that the insects will do damage to fruit.

Interested Farmers.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad company on Friday and Saturday of last week operated a farmers' special educational train over its main line and branches for the benefit of farmers in the Cumberland valley.

The Cumberland Valley Farmers' special was operated under the direction of the Pennsylvania State College and carried men of scientific knowledge and practical experience such as Alva Agee, acting dean, assisted by Professors H. E. VanNorman, F. D. Gardner, R. L. Watts, W. A. Cochel and M. S. McDowell, all of Pennsylvania State College.

The Cumberland Valley Railroad company supplied this educational train in the belief that its interests are identical with those of the farmers of Cumberland valley. By the improvement in conditions which will result from the adoption of better methods of farming the company hopes eventually to be repaid.

Roofing Guarantees.

When a maker guarantees his roofing, it merely means that he puts his claims for it in writing, and if there is any dispute afterwards, there are thousands of ways in which the maker can evade responsibility if he chooses.

The makers of Congo Roofing, however, have devised an interesting plan which gives the buyer absolute protection. With each roll of roofing is furnished a Surety Bond issued by the National Surety Company of New York, guaranteeing the faithful performance of the guarantee by the manufacturers. This gives to any possible complainant a Court of Appeals to which he can go, over the head of the manufacturer. In fact, this guaratee bond so pledges that if the manufacturers of Congo Roofing should go bankrupt or close out their business, the Surety Company would still continue to guarantee the reliability and satisfaction of Congo Roofing. The guarantee on the two or three ply is for 10 years.

A copy of the Guarantee can be obtained by addressing the. Potter-Hoy Hardware Co. Bellefonte, Pa.

Just the right medicine for backache, rheumatism Bright's disease and all urinary irregularities. C. Bichler, 2315 6th Ave., Altoona, Pa., says: "For several years I was troubled wi'h my kidneys and bladder and 'tho I had taken different medicines I received no relief. Foley Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and I started using them. The first few doses relieved me and after using only a few bottles I am entirely cured of all kidney and bladder trouble. The action of my kidneys was irregular and painfull and I was troubled with backaches and dizzy spells. Foley Kidney Pills were the means of restoring me to good health and I do not hesitate to recommend them." Sold by C. M. Parrish.

Man of Many Misfortunes.

The destruction by fire Sunday night of the home of Clarence Winters, a farmer living on Reach road, two miles out of Williamsport, was the culmination of a series of misfortunes that stamp Winters as a record breaking hard luck man. Three years ago the hoof and mouth disease affected his cattle and a very valuable herd of cows, as well as a fine lot of hogs, had to be killed. When the quarantine was lifted, Winter's business as a dairyman was ruined. Some months later, his horses sickened and died. A few weeks ago thieves relieved his chicken house of 200 fine fowls and now comes the loss of his home, although city firemen saved his barn and horses.

Conscience Stricken.

Edward Montgomery, aged 48 years, a musician from Pittsburg, gave himself up to Patrolman Balthaser, of Harrisburg, on Friday evening, saying he was wanted at Pittsburg for the theft of a suit of clothes.

Montgomery said he had traveled all over the State, but could find no peace of mind. He said he sold the suit for $1 and fearing detection, left Pittsburg.

A boardwalk has been built on the west side of the Daniel Rhoads property along the pike. This is a great convenience to the family of Frank McCoy and those residing in the Beaver-Hoy row. From this on there will not be so much swearing by the pedestrians who have been compelled to travel through the mud for three or four months.

C. Sumner Stover, of Millheim, is now employed on the farm of H. M. Hoy, in Nittany valley. He is an excellent man and will render good service.

Wonderful Praise Accorded Peruna the Household Remedy

Mrs. Maria Goertz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicines, and we always keep them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my housework alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."

For the purpose of correcting any errors of appraisements, an appeal will be held at County Treasurer's office, Bellefonte, Pa., on Saturday, April 22nd, 1911, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., and those who so desire can attend.

S. S. MILES,
Mercantile Appraiser.

IT IS HABIT

That counts. Why not try the saving habit. Thirty cents a day is one hundred dollars per year. Young man have you ever had this much money? If you have not, try the saving habit and see how easy it is to get it. You will find the second hundred will come much easier, and by the time you have a thousand your future will be assured for the saving habit will be fixed.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
BELLEFONTE, PA.
Capital $100,000. Surplus $125,000.

☞Our Bank Almanacs for 1911 are ready. Ask for one when you come to bank or drop us a card and one will be mailed to you.

Here and There.

Oh, Paddy dear, and did you hear
The news that's going round?
The Shamrock is forbid by law
To grow on Irish ground:

St. Patrick's Day no more to keep,
His color can't be seen,
For there's a bloody law a-gin
The wearin' o' the green.

I met with Napper Tandy
And he tuk me by the hand,
And he said "How's poor ould Ireland,
And how does she stand?"

She's the most distressful country
That ever you have seen;
They're hanging men and women there
For wearin' o' the green.

Tomorrow is St. Patrick's Day.

G. R. Spigelmyer left Bellefonte on Wednesday afternoon for Williamsport, where he spent the night with his daughter, Mrs. John Huffman.

Mrs. Simpson, wife of Dr. E. F. Simpson, and baby, of Scranton, are visiting in Bellefonte at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John Knisely, on Thomas street. Mrs. Simpson will be remembered as Mrs. C. B. Garman.

Robert Bradley, of Bradford, passed through Bellefonte at noon on Tuesday. He was met at the train by Miss Mary Bradley and Mrs. Russell Blair. The latter was on the sick list for several days but is around again as usual.

Mrs Catherine Baumgardner, of State College, recently had her 83rd birthday anniversary celebrated for her by children, grandchildren and friends to the number of thirty-seven. Mrs. Baumgardner is the youngest of three living sisters.

D. C. Walter, the old soldier, recently sold his property, in Bush Addition, to Moses Walter who will move there on April 1st. Consideration $1050. Comrade Walter has not decided whether he will end his days in Bellefonte or among friends on Marsh Creek.

Girard Altenderfer, son M. A. Altenderfer, has gone to Orangeville, N. Y., where he is employed on a large chicken ranch. He has made the chicken business a study and thus he will be a valuable man for a place of that kind. One of these days he will return home with a wife and an automobile, which will start some of his old friends here to thinking.

Captain George P. Runkle, of Bellefonte, who is in command of the Schoolship "Adams," was recently the guest of honor at a dinner given in Philadelphia by Charles W. Hall, a well known business man of that city. The Philadelphia newspapers published interesting reports of the dinner, speaking in praise of Captain Runkle and his service on the "Adams."

A very pleasant visitor to "The Republican" office a day or two ago was Mrs. Peter Smith, of Bellefonte. She called on what was to us a very pleasing mission. She had been spending a few days in State College with her son, Thomas, and when she returned home he sent with her a one dollar bill to advance his subscription to "The Republican" another year.

Rev. E. W. McDowell, for more than twenty years a missionary in Asiatic Turkey and Persia will make an address at the Bellefonte Presbyterian Chapel, Wednesday evening of next week. His life has been spent among some of the most fanatical and turbulent people on earth, and he has had many thrilling experiences and witnessed many startling scenes. His addresses will be worth hearing. All are cordially invited to attend.

On Thursday the "Harrisburg Telegraph" published a large and attractive portrait of Mrs. Wilbur F. Harris, who is quite well known in Bellefonte. She is an extremely popular vocalist in the Capital City, and on Tuesday evening gave a recital in Fahnestock's hall. She sang catchy ballads, folks songs and children's songs. The proceeds were for domestic sciences. Wilbur Harris was last week advanced from the position of business manager to that of managing editor of the newspaper on which he is employed at Carlisle.

We were no little pleased to receive a letter a few days ago from our old friend, Harry C. Brew, formerly of Bellefonte but now located in Philadelphia. When we say "our old friend" we do not necessarily imply that Harry is anywhere near the retired list age. On the contrary, he is just in his prime. Although he and Mrs. Brew now live in Philadelphia they never forget to call Bellefonte "home", and keep closely in touch with all that goes on here. "The Republican" is a weekly visitor to the Brew home and in his letter Harry enclosed a check advancing his subscription another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley who had been visiting here left Bellefonte on Tuesday afternoon for Philadelphia where they make their home. "Ben" is another first class mechanic who was forced to leave his old home several times because of the slump in work. He is a carpenter by trade and the indications are that the only building that will be done in Bellefonte this summer will be confined strictly to chicken coops. It is soon time our business men make some effort to secure industries that will give employment to at least the men who are here. Let somebody come to the front and be a leader toward bettering our condition along these lines.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas, of Stormstown, are looking forward with pleasure to a visit home by Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Daley, of Philadelphia, who are expected to arrive on Saturday to remain two weeks. Mrs. Daley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. Her husband is prominently identified with business circles in Philadelphia, meeting with gratifying success as a broker. On Christmas, last, he presented Mr. Thomas with a fine Peerless automobile, which is highly prized, both for its intrinsic value and the spirit which prompted the gift. The machine is a 50-horse power, seven passenger, touring car and is one of the finest in this section of the State.

Irvin Alexander, an old and prominent citizen of Unionville, was a pleasant visitor in Bellefonte on Wednesday. He is an old soldier with an enviable war record. He belonged to the 56th Regt. Pennsylvania Volunteers, who went to the front in 1861 and remained loyal to the Union until the close of the war, in 1865. He was in every battle in which his regiment was engaged and he never received a wound of any kind, which is remarkable. He was also among the first to open fire on the enemy at Gettysburg. Comrade Alexander says that S. H. Williams is the only man in Bellefonte who is left to tell the tale of the regiment. Robert Sloteman, of Pleasant Gap, is also a surviving member of the regiment.

Gen. James A. Beaver left Bellefonte on Monday for Harrisburg.

Samuel Osman has rented the Barnhart property on Thomas Street, now occupied by Herman Miller.

Mrs. Meek, wife of Dr. Meek, of Avis, and Mrs. John Hartsock, of Waddle, were recent visitors at Philipsburg.

Dr. George Rishel, son of John Rishel, of Benner township, is ill with nervous prostration at his home in Philadelphia.

W. T. Kelley, the obliging freight agent at the P. R. R. station, Bellefonte, spent Sunday with friends in Tyrone.

Miss Mollie Snyder, the milliner, left on Saturday for New York City, where she selected her Easter and summer stock.

Samuel Gilliland, aged 73 years, the last of the once numerous Gilliland family, and a son of John and Margaret Gilliland, died on Sunday at a sanitarium in Hollidaysburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Shugert left Bellefonte on Friday, last, for Pittsburg, where they spent Saturday and Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mac Curtin

W. E. Rover, shipped his household goods on Tuesday to Tyrone, where the family will make their home. "Billy" is a good fellow and he will be missed.

Bishop Darlington, of the Episcopal church, who resides at Harrisburg, has been threatened with pneumonia. The bishop has been a frequent visitor in Bellefonte.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. H. S. Heverly, of Lewistown, arrived in Bellefonte and was met at the train by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stuart, of Axe Mann.

Mrs. W. Homer Crissman left Bellefonte on Saturday for Sunbury, where on Tuesday she attended a reunion of her sisters. Mr. Crissman joined her on Monday. They had a delightful time.

William Hockenberry, who had been clerking in Harry Irvin's cigar store, with his wife left this week for Anderson, Ind., where they expect to make their future home. "Billy" is a good boy and his friends in Bellefonte were sorry to see him leave.

Irvin Underwood, of Renovo, arrived in Bellefonte on Friday afternoon and spent the night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Underwood, on Spring Street. He was accompanied to Bellefonte by Mr. Robinson, a member of the advisory board of the P. R. R. Relief Association.

Dr. Thomas S. Wilcox, D. D., pastor of the Methodist church, left Bellefonte on Monday afternoon for Bloomsburg where this week he is attending the Central Pennsylvania Conference. He was accompanied by Rev. D. A. Sower, of Pleasant Gap. Rev. C. C. Shuey left today for Bloomsburg.

George Meese is lying at his residence, on Thomas Street, completely paralized from his hips down, being unable to move a muscle. Several years ago Mr. Meese suffered a stroke of paralysis which left him in a more or less helpless condition. He was at one time considered one of the strongest men in this section of the state.

Robert Roberts, of Berwindale, spent Sunday in Bellefonte as the guest of——, well, you know who. "Bobby" is looking well and is getting along swimmingly, and it won't be long any more until some minister of Bellefonte will be asked to perform a ceremony that will make him the happiest man in this blooming world. You can salt that down.

Here is one for our good friends W. V. Larimer, James Toner, Christ Beezer, Frank Bartley and A. C. Thompson, the Bellefonte liverymen. On Friday it was thought that a valuable horse was dying in the streets of Wormleysburg, Pa. Parker Miller happened to be passing when he purchased the horse for five cents. Soon afterward the horse began to improve and was sold for $300.

Dr. M. L. Emerick, of Hickory Corners, Pa., was at the Brockerhoff House on Monday and Tuesday. It was really a sight to see the large number of people—men, women and children who were lined up in the office, hallways and waiting room who desired to see the doctor. They came from all points of the compass in the county, and were afflicted with all kinds of diseases.

Rev. George Fife, D. D., who is occupying the pulpit in the Bellefonte Presbyterian church, left Monday on the early train, over the Central Railroad of Pennsylvania, for Clearfield, where he assisted in conducting the services in connection with the funeral of the late Judge Cyrus Gordon. For several years Dr. Fife was pastor of the Clearfield Presbyterian church and was acquainted with the deceased.

Oscar Yerger now holds an excellent position in the shops at Renovo. It is soon time the Business Men's Association, of Bellefonte, are looking around to get some industries here that will keep such men at home. There are more people leaving Bellefonte this spring than for several years. Our merchants and business men will wake up to the sad spectacle when it is too late. The way to remedy these things is to do something now and not wait until many of our best people get out of the town.

Dr. Sumner Musser, of Aaronsburg, and F. P. Vonada, of Coburn, are now owners of new Ford automobiles. They were purchased through the agency of C. H. Breon & Co., of Millheim. The former purchased a touring car and the latter a runabout. Now Dr. Musser will have to give up his place in the amen corner for awhile for a while man who starts to run an automobile the devil keeps right with him and makes him say some awful things. Especially when he has to lay on the broad of his back under the machine.

Dr. R. G. H. Hayes, of Bellefonte has adopted the fad of raising chickens which some people think is a get-rich-quick scheme, but the Doctor has about concluded that it is a a losing game. The other day he had fifty little chicks, just about ready to take them from the incubator, when the machine became too hot and they were roasted to death. If the Doctor hadn't been a Presbyterian he would have been tempted to swear, but as that is against "Bluestockingism" he said "Get thee behind me Satan." He, however, is not discouraged and will try it again. Should the same thing happen another time we will not vouch that his church proclivities will save him from giving vent to his feelings.

Rev. W. H. Brown, formerly pastor of the Bellefonte Evangelical church, has been returned by conference to the Evangelical congregation at Lewisburg.

The baseball schedule of Bucknell University has been issued. It contains two games with Pennsylvania State College. The first will be played at Lewisburg, on Saturday, May 6th. The second game will be played at State College, on Saturday, June 10.

The Adams Express office, in Bellefonte, recently received two new four-wheel trucks. They are stouter and heavier than the old ones. This means that the volume of business is increasing under the careful management of Harry Taylor, the obliging agent. However, it makes the cold chills run down your back to see "Billy" Daley pull so hard. The danger is he might, some day, pull himself through his clothes.

On Monday Charles A. Smith, who gets his mail at Warriors Mark, Huntingdon county, but who lives across the line in Centre County, was a business visitor in Bellefonte. Many years ago he worked at the Bellefonte furnace and after the "Stricknine Corner" fire he assisted in clearing away the debris to make way for the Aiken and also the Reynold's block. He is a very pleasant gentleman and while in town for a few hours met quite a number of old friends.

Robert Barnes, who for the last twenty years had been the efficient night watchman at the Brockerhoff House, resigned his position on Monday morning and left for his home at Pleasant Gap, where he will spend the balance of his life in a neat and comfortable home. Twenty years is a long time to hold one position down, and he held it because he had been faithful to every duty. He is getting well up in years, and he took a wise view of the matter by stopping at a time when he could enjoy life a little without working so hard. His friends wish him long life and continued prosperity.

Dr. M. A. Kirk, of Bellefonte, is now devoting his time, aside from his practice, to his farm which is located on the hill, east of Nittany furnace. He is building a large hennery, which will be 60x18 feet. He has also dug a large cistern and by fall will have a house and barn on the place. Solomon Barlett, of Bellefonte, has been employed to take charge of the raising of chickens. During the summer Dr. Kirk will build other chicken houses in order to keep separate the various breeds. His purpose is to conduct the business along scientific lines. In the future if you desire something pretty nice in the chicken line, you can get it from Dr. Kirk.

The other day Herbert Miller, the Bellefonte carpenter, was laying a floor in an out building in the rear of the E. R. Chambers property, on Linn Street, recently purchased by Register Earle C. Tuten. While making measurements a rotten joist broke. While falling he fortunately grabbed another and more substantial joist, but he soon found himself suspended in a hole perhaps forty feet deep. It was only by hard work that he was able to escape from an awful catastrophe. Had he gone down they would have had to fish for him with more than a hook and line. He was very nervous for several hours afterwards with the thought of what might have happened. Herb, however, finished the work which was very satisfactory to Mr. Tuten.

Every Man Has Three Kinds of Obligations Which Ought to be met.

FIRST. His obligation to himself.

SECOND. His obligation to his dependent ones.

THIRD. His future obligation to his dependent ones when by death he is no longer able to meet it personally.

Some men discharge only the first one and boldly repudiate the others. Some discharge the first two and neglect the third because they fear only the shame which faces the living. The manly man, God's best handiwork, discharges faithfully all three and does not suffer during life for the benefits enjoyed by his loved ones after death.
